

LUCE IS RIDING ARMENIAN WORK

GOES OVER TOP WITH 200 PER CENT OF ITS GRAIN QUOTA IN THE CAMPAIGN.

"Neither draft nor armistice" is anticipated by the Emergency Grain Board of Near East Relief, or by its subsidiary County grain boards now formed or forming throughout the State to carry Michigan with a rush over the top in the great human appeal for 5,000,000 bushels of bread grains from America to starving Armenia and the Transcaucasus.

The Michigan Grain Board through its executive committee—Commissioner of Agriculture Halladay, Professor David Friday and Mr. L. Whitney Watkins—announces a big, eager response from County grain boards and from farmers generally to the call for 100,000 bushels of corn and wheat, or their equivalent in other commodity or in money, from the farms of the two peninsulas. "The whole-line is moving forward to help put life-saving food into that dread no-man's-land of hunger, the Near East," is the way one member of the Emergency board expressed it.

Though only the first week of the period set for contribution had passed, these counties already had reported complete organization of their grain boards, one of them had subscribed and transmitted its full quota, and one other over-subscribed its quota by nearly 100 per cent; name following county indicates chairman or secretary or secretary-treasurer:

Allegan, Humphrey Gurdine of Allegan; Alpena, C. E. VanWagoner of Alpena; Baraga, Joseph Latendresse of Keweenaw Bay; Barry, F. W. Bennett of Hastings; Branch, A. W. Cole of Coldwater; Calhoun, R. M. Roland of Marshall; Clinton, Eaton Emmet, E. A. Butford of Petoskey; Genesee; Hillsdale; Ionia, John C. Butler of Port Huron; Isabella, Charles E. Thompson of Tawas City; Jackson, C. V. Ballard of Jackson; Kalamazoo, Jas. Greave of Kalamazoo; Kent, T. H. McAuguston of Grand Rapids; Lenawee, E. A. Blenden of Adrian; Luce, M. E. Beurmann of Newberry (oversubscribed nearly 100 per cent); Menominee, A. T. Depuy of Marquette; Midland, Monroe, Ignatius Kirtland of Erie; Montcalm; Oakland, B. A. Holden of Milford; Oscoda; Otsego, A. C. Lytle of Gaylord (transmitted its full quota); Ottawa; Pigeon Isle, Clinton; Maynard of Millersburg; Schoolcraft, F. Ekstrom of Manistique; St. Clair, Leonard Theisen of St. Clair; Tuscola, Alex MacVittie of Caro; Washtenaw, George W. McCalla of Ypsilanti; Wayne, August L. Bunte of Flat Rock.

Among the counties which have reported organization in progress are Cass, Chippewa, Crawford, Gogebic (portion of quota transmitted); Iron, Leelanau, Macomb, Muskegon and Saginaw.

M. A. C. Team Is Third at Show

East Lansing, Oct. 20.—Placing third among teams entered from sixteen leading agricultural colleges of the Middle West, a student dairy cattle judging team from M. A. C. won high honors for the state last week at the National Dairy Show, in Minneapolis.

In addition to third rank in "all breeds" judging, the boys from the Michigan Agricultural College won second in Jersey, and third in Ayshires in the special breed work. Frank Thomas, of Lansing, stood second in individual standing for all judging; while L. E. Harper, of Midville, won third individual honors in the Jersey class.

The team was coached by Prof. H. E. Denison, of the dairy department at the college, in connection with class work in dairy judging. It is the first year that competitive teams have been sent out from M. A. C.

Frank Thomas, of Lansing, L. E. Harper of Midville; Wm. J. Sweetman, of East Lansing; and L. J. Carter, of Elsie (interns), made up the Michigan team. They are all students in the agricultural division at the college. This is the second big dairy show at which the boys have done well, the same team placing third at Waterloo, Iowa, national show two weeks ago.
